

TIFFIN UNIVERSITY

BACHELOR OF CRIMINAL JUSTICE
HOMELAND SECURITY

GOALS AND COURSE TOPICS

Protecting our nation is paramount to our citizens and critical infrastructure. The Bachelor of Criminal Justice (BCJ) degree program in Homeland Security & Terrorism helps you understand homeland security issues and challenges in an ever-evolving environment. While emphasizing terrorism, the program also teaches assessment and response planning for real-world situations at local, state and federal levels.

YOUR HOMELAND SECURITY & TERRORISM PROGRAM

Homeland security and terrorism are complex fields that can lead to a number of career paths. Classes teach students to devise strategies using state, local and national instruments of power against threats, construct security and response plans, apply research to criminal justice concepts, identify and prioritize risk and communicate within all levels of government.

PRACTICAL EDUCATION

The Tiffin University Homeland Security and Terrorism program teaches the fundamental values and purposes of criminal justice in American society. It prepares students for entry level administrative and advocacy positions.

FORMAT

Online: Two terms per semester starting in January, March, May, July, August and October.

On Campus: 15-week per semester. Classes start in January and August.

PROFESSIONAL FIELDS

Federal Bureau of Investigation
Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA)

U.S. Coast Guard
U.S. Customs and Border Protection
U.S. Immigration and Naturalization
U.S. Secret Service

WHO IS THIS PROGRAM FOR?

Protecting our nation is as real as it gets. Tiffin University's homeland security and terrorism curriculum was developed in direct response to real security threats posed by transnational terrorist organizations. The need for graduates who grasp the complexities of this field is clear and growing.

"THE BEST PART ABOUT IT IS THAT MY INSTRUCTORS ARE FELLOW LAW ENFORCEMENT OFFICERS. IT'S GREAT HOW THEY INJECT REAL-WORLD EXAMPLES INTO THE COURSES."

— Richard F., TU Online student
